PIRATES OF PENZANCE

The Pirates hit the road again in 2018 for their 21st Anniversary (and final) tour, which will take in five states of Australia.

This fast paced and beautifully sung show which tours with a full set and costumes, is the complete production but beware in 2018, it will contain nuts and Donald Trump Additives. Hilarious!

A true family musical comedy is what lies ahead, with the pirates clashing swords and trading barbs in this modern take. The stellar cast is led by musical theatre star Philip Gould as the swashbuckling Pirate King, Veteran Comic Baritone Brian Hannan as The Major General and The Police Sergeant and International Soprano Alison Jones as Mabel. Don't miss Opera Australia Mezzo Soprano Caroline Vercoe as Ruth, Chris McKenna as Frederic and Dominic Woodhead as the Musical Director on Piano.
