MRC release > Festival of Arts tickets run wild

MUSIC, theatre and events will soon take over Mackay for the 28th annual Festival of Arts, with tickets now on sale at www.mackaytix.com.au.

Audiences can run wild in a jungle of entertainment from thrilling circus acts and bold burlesque to sensational jazz and tantalizing gourmet food events.

Festival, Events and The Arts portfolio councillor Chris Bonanno said residents had a taste of what was in store at the Festival of Arts Pop-up Party at Bluewater Quay on Saturday night (May 23).

“Walk on the Wild Side is this year’s theme and there are more than 20 opportunities to let your hair down and run riot,” Cr Bonanno said.

“Ticket sales for Progressive Dinner have indicated that the event will sell out quickly.”

Cr Bonanno encouraged residents to get a group of friends together and book before July 1 to take advantage of the early bird discounts.

A number of free events feature in this year’s program including the festival opening night - Queensland Symphony Orchestra Under the Stars at the Mackay Regional Botanic Gardens Amphitheatre (July 10).

The Mackay Festival of Arts runs from July 10 to 19 with free programs available from the MECC Box Office.

Event details and tickets are now available online at www.mackaytix.com.au.
